

TABLE OF INDICATORS OF THE SOCIAL ECONOMY AND CORRESPONDENCE WITH GLOBAL REPORTING INITIATIVE

Principle one. Priority of people and business purpose on the capital	GRI Indicators
ES1.1. Description of a brief report that shows the priority of people and the business purpose on the capital	2.6
Principle two. Voluntary and open membership	GRI Indicators
ES2.1. Requirements for the membership of new people in the organization	-
ES2.2. Requirements and conditions for leaving the organization	-
ES2.3. Evolution of partners or members, describing the variations in joining and leaving the organization	-
Principle three. Business organization and culture for participative and democratic management	GRI Indicators
ES3.1. Percentage of people or groups with voting rights in the top decision-making bodies compared with the total number of people in the organization	4.4
ES3.2. Level of renewal in the organization's representational bodies, indicating the renewal formula planned	4.7
ES3.3. Task forces or areas generated to encourage decision-making in the organization	-
ES3.4. Percentage of people in the organization who take part in one of the groups or areas generated	-
ES3.5. Information process through which people in the organization are given access to information on three sides (society, business and economic), indicating the channels, the frequency and the addressees.	4.4
ES3.6. Percentage of members of the organization that have received or taken part in specific training activities regarding social economics over the past year in relation to the total number of members of the organization	4.7
ES3.7. Average percentage of real participation in the top decision-making bodies	4.4
ES3.8. Description of the preparatory process of the top social representation body	4.4
	4.6
Principle four. Group of interests of user members and those of general interest	GRI Indicators
ES4.1. Definition of a map of the groups of interest focused on in the organization	3.5
	4.14
	4.15
ES4.2. Relational flows existing between the organization and its groups of interest	4.16
ES4.3. Existence of a section on human rights (rejection of child labour and forced and compulsory labour, freedom of association, prohibition of accepting bribes, corruption, etc.) within the social responsibility policy	HR5
	HR6
	HR7
	SO2
	SO4
ES4.4. Adaptation to the cultural identity of the regions where the organization is active	-
ES4.5. Existence of a satisfaction appraisal system of the groups of interest	4.17
	PR5

Principle five. Defence and application of solidarity principles	GRI Indicators	Page
ES5.1. Organization of social, cultural or solidarity events and financial or other types of collaboration with them.	4.12
	EC8
	EC9
ES5.2. Existence of actions linked to socially responsible investments	-
ES5.3. Existence of a formal declaration requesting that suppliers and contracted companies agree to environmentally respectful and socially responsible management	HR1
	HR2
ES5.4. Consideration of environmental criteria in the selection of suppliers, products and services	-
ES5.5. Number and type of cooperation activities carried out with other organizations	4.12
ES5.6. Percentage of purchases made in the region (raw materials, services and fixed assets)/total purchases.	EC1
ES5.7. Existence of equal opportunities policies or procedures in the selection, promotion and development of people in the organization	EC7
ES5.8. Knowledge and documentation on the significant environmental impact of the activity	EN12
	EN25
	EN29
ES5.9. Definition and documentation of annual environmental objectives in line with significant environmental impact	EN26
ES5.10. Breakdown of staff per job, contract and region, including the jobs held by disabled people as a percentage of the entire organization	LA1
ES5.11. Total number of staff broken down into age groups, sex and region, specifying the disabled	LA2
ES5.12. Average turnover of the workforce, broken down into age groups, sex and region, specifying the disabled.	LA2
ES5.13. Measures adopted to cooperate in the conservation or restoring of species or natural areas and the natural and cultural wealth of the organization	EN13
	EN14
	EN15
ES5.14. Provide an auditorium accessible to all and famous worldwide	-

Principle six. Management autonomy and independence from the public authorities	GRI Indicators	Page
ES6.1. Description of a brief report giving details of the requirements and limitations of the management sovereignty of the top decision-making bodies of the organization	-

Principle seven. Application of the surplus of services to members or the main part thereof in the meeting of objectives in favour of general interest	GRI Indicators	Page
ES7.1. Percentage of Liabilities corresponding to collective or non-distributable funds	-
ES7.2. Percentage of the distribution of surplus for collective or non-distributable funds	-
ES7.3. Percent of surplus assigned to members of the organization or the appointing of people (capitalized or financial surplus)	4.5
ES7.4. Increase or decrease in profits retained at the end of the period	EC1

Table of contents of Social economy principles	-
--	---	--